about the tables . . .

GREECE—

The Greek table's centerpiece features a grape arrangement to signify the many grape vineyards in Greece. The temple on one end is the Temple of Zeus. On the other end of the table is a statue of a Greek goddess.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA—

The color scheme of the table represents the colors of the flag. The red carnation is the national flower. The Czechs are famous for their pastries, colorful costumes, and the Maypole Dance.

SWEDEN—

The Swedish table's centerpiece is a hand-carved Viking ship. The hand-carved dolls of an old couple came from Sweden. The wooden horses are hand made.

IRELAND—

The main attraction for the Irish table is the Irish shamrock. Theme colors green and white are seen along the table. Other decorations are village churches, the Irish top hat, a farm scene, and leprechans.

P.T.A.—

"Let Freedom Ring" is the theme of this table. Colors are red, white and gold. Centerpiece consists of large gold bell on red velvet. There are also bells of different sizes and varieties displayed. Antique lamps are used in place of candles. Place cards have phone dialers with a bell that guests may have for a favor. Serving girls are dressed as "Liberty Belles."

SPANISH—

The centerpiece of the Spanish table is a model of a Spanish galleon made by Joe Schreck in his spare time during the last 2½ months. Also featured are two miniature Spanish gardens like those found in the major cities of Spain, made by the hostesses.

NETHERLANDS—

A pair of Dutch dolls and a replica of a Dutch windmill help decorate this table along with a replica of a cheese shed and tulips which is the national flower.

JAPAN—

The centerpiece is a hand-carved model of "Torii" which is the traditional entrance gate to the Shinto Shrine. The hand-made fans from Japan add color to this table.

SOUTH SEA ISLANDS—

The centerpiece of this table is a hand-carved Buddhist. To add to the decorations are two banana boats which came from Hawaii and pineapples.

FRANCE—

Here we have the traditional sidewalk cafe for which France is noted. Other decorations are the signing of the Peace Treaty and a Paris fashion show.
